

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an "Stolen Honor" days before the election is a clear example of the proper use of the media. I.e. providing truthful information to the public.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is important that real people from our own communities view substantive news about issues like this that matter.

Thank you.